Merge Conflict Summary:
While working to merge the Test and Working branches within my repository, I encountered an issue with the README.md file due to the changes made that created a conflict. Once this issue was identified, I reviewed both branches and the information associated with them about.html: 'Changed about.html written content and added additional information.' Additional information about the business/page will be added in for public viewing and knowledge.
C1 Changes Summary:
contact.html: 'Updated the contact.html file to include contact information.' Contact information is being added to user access if needed.
customers.html: 'Updated customers.html and added customer information.' Adding relevant information for customer viewing.
